Library Cost Studies

Enhance the research capabilities at your institution.

The library is an essential partner in the research enterprise, providing vital resources and support services for federally sponsored research.

Our Library Cost Study accurately demonstrates library expenses for sponsored research.

- ▶ Ensures your institution can recover a fair portion of indirect costs
- ▶ Contributes to the institution's financial sustainability
- ▶ Complies with federal regulations

A Library Cost Study collects purpose-of-use data and analyzes salaries, wages, and benefits, operating expenses, collection and material expenditures, and space use. The final analysis determines library expenses by the purpose of library use, specifically funded (sponsored) use.

- ▶ Performed over 130 times at more than 40 universities
- ▶ Highlights the library's impact on the university mission
- ▶ Informs library programmatic and budgetary decisions
- ▶ Provides valuable library assessment data
- ▶ Recognizes the changing nature of libraries
- ▶ Tested, valid, and reliable
